

Daily Vocab Bank

1. HEART-RENDING (adjective) : दिल प्रतिपादन, शोकजनक

Meaning: causing great sadness or distress.

Synonyms: upsetting, disturbing, heartbreaking, tragic, painful, traumatic, agonizing, desolate, harrowing, excruciating.

Antonyms: cheering, heartwarming, inspiring, stimulating, stirring, uplifting, delightful, enjoyable, pleasing, exhilarating, thrilling.

Usage: The heart-rending scenes that he witnessed turned him into a social worker and a spiritual thinker.

2. CORUSCATE (verb) : उज्ज्वल होना

Meaning: (of light) flash or sparkle.

Synonyms: gleam, glimmer, glint, glisten, glister, glitter, luster, scintillate, shimmer, spangle, sparkle, twinkle.

Antonyms: converge, suffer, dullness.

Usage: The flashlight was used to coruscate a message to the other campers across the lake.

3. SUPINE (adjective) : लापरवाह

Meaning: failing to act or protest as a result of moral weakness or indolence.

Synonyms: spineless, yielding, enervated, acquiescent, pliant, submissive, servile, inactive, passive, inert, spiritless, apathetic, indifferent.

Antonyms: proactive, expeditious, strong, assertive, fecund, fervent, vivacious, thriving, tenacious.

Usage: My brother-in-law is a lazy fellow who will sleep with his head up in a supine position all day long.

4. PERAMBULATE (verb) : इधर-उधर टहलना

Meaning: to travel by foot for exercise or pleasure

Synonyms: amble, hike, ramble, saunter, stroll, tramp, tromp, traipse, meander, trudge.

Antonyms: run

Usage: They decided to take a short cut and perambulate over the large hill.

5. CONFABULATE (verb) : बातचीत करना

Meaning: to talk informally

Synonyms: backchat, cackle, chat, chitchat, gab, gossip, palaver, patter, rap, schmooze, table talk.

Antonyms: be silent, be quiet, listen.

Usage: Guests gathered in the hallway to confabulate about the weather and make small talk.

6. EERIE (adjective) : भयग्रस्त

Meaning: strange and frightening.

Synonyms: uncanny, sinister, ghostly, unnatural, unearthly, mysterious, creepy, haunting, spooky.

Antonyms: normal, ordinary, prosaic, routine, typical, unexceptional, unremarkable, usual.

Usage: An eerie feeling came over us as we watched the scary movie.

7. SUCCINCTLY (adverb) : संक्षेप

Meaning: in a brief and clearly expressed manner.

Synonyms: brief, compact, compendious, concise, crisp, curt, epigrammatic, laconic, monosyllabic, sententious, summary, terse.

Antonyms: circuitous, circumlocutory, diffuse, long-winded, prolix, rambling, verbose, windy, wordy.

Usage: The reviewer's remarks were succinct and to the point.

8. BATHETIC (adjective) : जिसमें अचानक पतन या अपकर्ष हो

Meaning: producing an unintentional effect of anticlimax.

Synonyms: anticlimactic, disappointing, disillusioning; mawkish, sentimental, maudlin, mawkish.

Antonyms: calm, matter-of-fact, unimaginative, unemotional, unsentimental.

Usage: The movie manages to be poignant without becoming bathetic.

9. SPURT (noun) : गति में उछाल

Meaning: a sudden marked burst or increase of activity or speed.

Synonyms: gush, jet, pour, rush, spew, spout, squirt, swoosh.

Antonyms: dribble, drip, drop, trickle, spatter, sprinkle.

Usage: Year-on-year growth in output per worker spurted to 2.9 % in the second quarter.

10. PRECARIOUS (adjective) : अनिश्चित

Meaning: dependent on chance; uncertain.

Synonyms: uncertain, insecure, unreliable, unsure, unpredictable, undependable, doubtful, dubious, delicate, tricky, problematic.

Antonyms: certain, stable, firm, sure, confirmed, definite, steady, settled, sustainable.

Usage: As Finance Secretary I found that the finances of the state were in a precarious condition.'

PINNACLE